The term of the previous contract of lighting the town having expired on the 30th June 81, this meeting was specially called to settle about the lighting of the town for the year

Two persons tendered for the Contract; one, the old contractor Veera Raghava Doss and the other, one Balaji Rao, Shopkeeper.

Veera Raghava Doss's tender was was at the old rate of Rs1. 9. 0 per lamp per mensem - Balaji Rao's at Rs1. 7. 0 only.

There being some difference of opinion amongst the members as to whether the old contract should be renewed or the lower terms of Balaji Rao accepted, the President said it was a matter upon which he would refrain from expressing any opinion as it was a matter which the members of the Board with their knowledge of the Contractors and the town were fully competent to decide by themselves.

Mr. Mahammed Ali then proposed that Veera Raghava Doss's proposal should be accepted as although higher than Balaji Rao's, he had men trained to lighting and cleaning lamps and had during the past two years given satisfaction in his work

Mr. Appu Rao proposed that Balaji Rao's offer should be accepted on the ground that as it was cheaper, the Board at least should allow him a fair trial.

The matter was then put to the Vote when 5 members voted for Veera Raghava Boss and only 3 for Balaji Rao.

Veera Raghava Boss's tender was therefore accepted.

2. Several members of the Board then brought to notice that an increase in the number of lamps was urgently required.

Unanimously decided that the number of lamps should be increased by twenty-six.

3. The applicants for the lighting contract both stated that if the number of lamps was increased, they were prepared to reduce the terms of their tenders. . . . . .

After

after some further desultory conversation, the proceedings terminated.
